Get your soles ready for fall mud. The equinoctial wasn't much of a shower after all.

Niagara Falls hotel-keepers look blue under the electric light. It takes a whole straw stack to keep a tramp warm these days.

None of the naval vessels got around last week. They were all in port. Who talks of hard times when men will pay ten cents for a frost-bitten muskadeer?

Over the meadow and over the sea. These mornings are tough on the bumble bee.

The corn grows hard and the pumpkins gleam. And a mist hangs o'er each country stream.

Prof. Wise has concluded not to go up in any more balloons. He loves the hard, firm soil of earth.

No owner of a fast horse was ever yet without a dozen excuses for his nag's failure to come in ahead.

Don't make a mistake and call it the Hamilton-Courtesy "selling" match. It is "sculling," you know.

There won't be any Indian summer this year. The Indian agents have made arrangements to steal it.

One may run a lecture bureau and be as crazy as a loon, and give a lecture and be the biggest fool in America.

Always make a rule never to say anything before a man's face that you wouldn't dare say behind his back.

Whenever a fool makes up his mind to start a new daily in Washington he can find other fools to furnish the cash to set him up.

Iowa has a paper which has for its motto: "We Love All Men." The female publisher gives herself dead away at the start.

The very day that Vennor, the Canadian weather prophet, predicted a dry, warm wave a cold rain set in all over the country.

There is a great demand for nails, and the Philadelphia Chronicle-Herald thinks that prosperity is just hammering at our doors.

The premium at a State Fair on the best cheese is greater than on the best oil painting, and yet artists are supposed to feel encouraged.

They have begun shooting convicts at Sing Sing again, and before winter sets in will probably reduce the number to the average figures.

The New Orleans Picayune wants to know if babies suffer when they cry, good lands, no! Their object is simply to make some one else suffer.

English women who have good complexions must pay the penalty. No less than four of them, including Mrs. Langtry, are defendants in divorce cases.

None of the European nations are afraid of Russia, you know, but let Russia make a mistake and she will find nations rush together and make alliances at midnight.

We know a good many men who are anxiously advocating the payment of the national debt, but forget all about those contracted by themselves. —Elmira Gazette.

The man who snores, and who knows that he snores, and yet who won't put a clothes-pin on his nose when going to bed has the blood of an army contractor in his veins.

Turpentine may not compare with cologne for scent, but one North Carolina made $22,000 profit on the stuff last year, and he wants folks to stick up their noses over that.

Beautifiers. Ladies, you cannot make fair skin, rosy cheeks and sparkling eyes with all the cosmetics of France, or beautifiers of the world, while in poor health, and nothing will give you such good health, strength, buoyant spirits and beauty as Hop Bitters. A trial is certain proof. See another column.

Humor on a Child
Since Birth Cured, after faithful Medical Treatment had failed.
Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen, My little son, two years of age, has had a humor on one side of his face since he was born, which during the last four months has spread over the entire side of his face, the child cries and is in great pain. I have tried every remedy, but to no avail. I have heard of your CURE, and I have ordered it for him. I have used it, and it has cured him. I am very much pleased, and I am sure you will be, too. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, JOHN L. SULLY.

CHILDREN AND INFANTS.
More Cures of Skin and Scalp Affections by the Cuticura Remedies.
Fred. Bohner, Chemist and Druggist, National Bank, Pueblo, Colo., writes: "I am so well pleased with its effects on my baby, that I cannot afford to be without it in my house. It is a wonderful cure, and is bound to become very popular as soon as its virtues are known to the masses."
J. S. Weeks, Esq., Town Treasurer, St. Albans, Vt., writes in a letter dated May 28: "It works too cheap on my baby's face and head. Cured the head entirely, and has nearly cleared the face of sores. I have recommended it to several, and Dr. Potter has ordered it for them."
M. M. Clark, Esq., of Franklin, Boston, says: "My little daughter, eighteen months old, has what the doctors call Eczema. We have tried most everything, and she has not improved. I have used CUTICURA, and she is almost a new child, and now feels very happy."

Prickly Heat.
Incidental to the Climate.
Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen, Enclosed please find one dollar for a large box of CUTICURA. The small one that I received some time ago has been very efficacious, especially in Prickly Heat or Rash, a some people call it. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, THOMAS W. BUCKLEY, Mass., Texas, Sept. 22, 1878.

Cuticura is a most valuable external application. It breaks all cuts, bruises, and abrasions of the skin, restores the hair when destroyed by scalp diseases, removes dandruff and keeps the scalp clean and the hair soft and pliable. It is as agreeable as it is effective, and is easily assisted in every case by the CUTICURA SOAP, which is particularly recommended for cleansing the skin and scalp of infants and children. It is as effective as any medicinal soap for the nursery and bath of any these people.

HOSTETTER'S

CELEBRATED

STOMACH BITTERS

Pever and Ague is most common in the spring, but most severe in the fall and winter. It is strictly a malarious disease, and so surely as the Bitters are adopted, so surely will the individual who adopts this prevention be exempted from its pains and penalties. Add to this its value as a stomachic and anti-bilious agent, and who will venture to gainsay its claims to the first place among family medicines.
